Worship Leader. Mr. Paul Whiteley

We Gather as Grateful People

Prelude: Meditation on a Theme by James Manley

Welcome: Diane Nuttall

Land Acknowledgement

Grace United Church takes seriously the commitments made to First Nations communities through the national Truth and Reconciliation Commission Report, especially through the Calls to Action to churches like us.

Therefore, we acknowledge this day, that we gather for worship on the traditional territories of the original nations of this land, and we acknowledge with respect, their history, their spirituality and their culture.

Community in Action - Birthdays and Anniversaries

Centering Music: We Centre Our Hearts for Worship.

Spiritual Focus

Lighting the Christ Candle

Call to Worship (Responsive)

One: As we travel this Lenten pathway, we journey together, a community of faith.

All: As we travel this Way of Jesus,
we journey together, but also alone.

One: Practicing our faith:

All: living Christ's call to love God with all that we are,
to love our neighbour
as we love ourselves.

One: Practicing our faith:

All: as stewards on the Way.

Gathering Song of Praise: Voices United #395

"Come In, Come In and Sit Down"

Prayer of the Day (All)

God of the hungry times,
God of the difficult times,
God of all the times of our lives,

we need to talk.
Sometimes it's difficult to understand the direction we need to go.
With all the choices we have in our lives,
sometimes we're not sure
when to say "Yes," or when to say "No."
So we ask for your guidance.
We ask for wisdom.
We ask for Spirit.
In our worship, in our work,
in our choices, in our lives.
May it be so, loving God!
Amen.

We Reflect on the Sacred Stories

Song of Illumination: More Voices #154

"Deep In Our Hearts"

A Time for the Youth and Young At Heart

Scripture Reader: Denise Wood

Scripture Reading:

Reader: Listen for the Sacred Story,

All: our ears and hearts are open.

Scripture Reading: Luke 15:1-3, 11b-32

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them."

So he told them this parable:

"There was a man who had two sons. The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the wealth that will belong to me.' So he divided his assets between them. A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant region, and there he squandered his wealth in dissolute living. When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that region, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that region, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. He would gladly have filled his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, and no one gave him anything. But when he came to his senses he said, 'How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands."' So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him. Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son. But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe—the best one—and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate, for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' And they began to celebrate.

"Now his elder son was in the field, and as he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing. He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on. He replied, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf because he has got him back safe and sound.' Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him. But he answered his father, 'Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command, yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your assets with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!' ³¹ Then the father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.'

Reader: Here ends today's reading.

For the Sacred Story is God's story,

All: for the Sacred Story is our story,

Reader: for the Sacred Story is our source and inspiration.

All: Thanks be to God.

Anthem: A Green Hill Far Away – Don Besig/Nancy Price

Morning Message: Points of View

We Respond to God's Grace

Song of Assurance: More Voices #90

"Don't Be Afraid"

Prayers of Hope and Healing

Lord's Prayer (All –spoken)

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory
forever and ever. Amen.

Invitation to Offering

We give as able to spread God's Love with JOY!

Collection of the Offering - Music

Offertory Song: Voices United #537

(Tune: Amazing Grace VU #266))

- 1 Your work, O God, needs many hands
to help you everywhere,
and some there are who cannot serve unless our gifts we share.

- 2 Because we love you and your work,
our offering now we make:
be pleased to use it as your own,
we ask for Jesus' sake.

Words: Calvin Weiss Lauffer 1927, alt.

Prayer of Thanksgiving and Dedication (All)

The bills and the coins
and the numbers in the bank
are symbols of the work of our hands, loving God.

We offer them to you,
that they would be signs and symbols
of our worship as they go out into the world.
May they be used in ways
that bring healing and wholeness
to all creation.

Amen
